4. In 1948, a farm cooperative was established in Verinska (N4229 E2345), Ikhtiman district. Some of the land was seized by the government and part of it, particularly barren land which was of little value to the owners, was given voluntarily. As of July 1952, the cooperative owned 60 percent of the farm land in the village although only 40 of the 250 families were members. The cooperative owned four tractors.
